

OBITUARIES

BEALL

Dr. Robert Bailey Beall, 72, of Pascagoula, Miss., born Jan. 21, 1929, in Mobile, Ala., died Sat., Sept. 22, in Pascagoula. He was a Dr. of Veterinarian Medicine in Pascagoula for many years. Dr. Beall attended Georgia Military Academy in Atlanta, Ga. He attended Auburn University of Veterinarians Medicine Class of 1954. He was a member of the Elks Lodge #1120 in Pascagoula Masonic Lodge 419, in Pascagoula, a member of Shriner Jopa Temple, and a member of Go-

Sam Campers.

Dr. Beall was Jackson County's first Veterinarian. His practice included both large and small animals for 20 years, before selling his practice and pursuing other business interest. In earlier years, he enjoyed large animal hunting in the West every Fall. All that knew him were aware of his love of people and wonderful sense of humor. He loved sports, especially Auburn Football. He had a great knowledge of local area history and enjoyed stories of those times. He will be greatly missed by family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs.

H. D. "Red" Beall; and infant grandson, Broc Beall.
